

The Rashi Database Project

GOALS: * Show that all Rashid comments are spontaneous, instant, effortless reactions of a native speaker to the biblical text.

*This is accomplished by skillful English translations instantly suggesting the Rashid comment to the reader

* Additionally, each Rashid comment is examined using the 10 organs of the Rashid anatomy.

PESHAT, SPONTANEOUS, REACTION TO SKILLFUL ENGLISH TRANSLATION

RASHI vs. MIDRASH: We will continue with the routine Rashid comments begun recently. Although there are already encyclopedic works documenting Rashi's rich approach to dictionary meaning such as Avineri's Rashi's Palace, my emphasis will be on the half dozen principles and figures of speech used to explain meaning. Additionally, as done in my doctoral thesis, I will emphasize that peshat the straightforward meaning of the text coincides with what reading literacy examinations test.

The techniques covered in this routine Rashid series are: Metonymy, hypernymy, synecdoche, meronymy, root meaning, grammar, parallelism, the paragraph, and reading literacy. By repeatedly emphasizing these principles and reinforcing them with English examples it is hoped that the reader will acquire a natural skill for these approaches thereby leading to greater Rashid appreciation.

This table with this week's examples begins on the next page.

Verse	Translation of Verse with Rashid	Rule	Brief Explanation of Rule
Ex21-13a	But if a person [who killed someone] did not ambush [lit. hunt] him ...then I [God] will create a city for him to seek refuge	Synecdoche	Just as honey can mean sweet, just as day [12-hour part] can refer to the 24-hour day because they are good examples [synecdoche] so to hunt can mean ambush since it is a good example of ambushing.
Ex21-18b	When two people fight, and one hits the other who gets sick and bedridden [lit. falls to bed]	Synecdoche Idiom	Just as honey can mean sweet, just as day [12-hour part] can refer to the 24-hour day because they are good examples [synecdoche] so too fall to bed can refer to a bedridden sickness
Ex21-19a	If [the smitten person] gets up [out of bed] and he walks outside in health [lit. on his cane]	Synecdoche	Just as honey can mean sweet, just as day [12-hour part] can refer to the 24-hour day because they are good examples [synecdoche] so too walks on a cane can refer to walking in health. Of note is that the Rambam explains this idiom in his legal code: "(It couldn't be literal (on a cane) since even a person about to die can walk on a cane. Rather it means the person can walk under conditions of normal health (Murder 4:4))
Ex21-19c	If the smitten person gets up out of bed and walks outside in health, then the damage is only liable for unemployment [lit. sitting] and medical damage caused.	Metonymy - Synecdoche	Just as honey can mean sweet, just as day [12-hour part] can refer to the 24-hour day because they are good examples [synecdoche] so too sitting refers to unemployment since sitting vs. standing is a good example [synecdoche] of unemployment.
Ex21-01a	Nevertheless, if he survives [after being smitten by his master] for 24 hours [lit. day or days], his master is not executed [for the murder] because....	Idiom Synecdoche	Just as honey can mean sweet, just as day [12-hour part] can refer to the 24-hour day because they are good examples [synecdoche] so too day or days is an idiom meaning 24 hours since it is a good example of a time period that can span one day or two days. NOTE: Rashid seems to derive the meaning from a logical argument: Which day is like two days? A 24-hour period. Actually, Rashi's real point is that day or days is an idiom; the derivation he gives is a probable or reasonable way that the idiom could have developed.

Ex21-21a,b,c	[Damages are paid for] a burn, cut, or black-and-blue mark	Parallelism	The verse lists 3 categories of injury. Rashid translates them as burn, cut, or black-and-blue mark. Rashid does give some etymologies from root meanings for example the Hebrew root for cut, Pay-Tzade-Ayin means to split. However, in my opinion, Rashid is deriving the three meanings from the context and climactic parallelism. 1st: Certainly, damages must be paid for a burn where the skin is destroyed; 2nd: Damages must be paid even for a cut where the skin itself is not destroyed but cut; 3rd damages must be paid even for a black-and-blue mark where the skin is not damaged but clots underneath the skin cause discoloring.
Ex22-01a	If the thief was discovered in a tunnel (by the house owner) and he was smitten and died, the house-owner is not liable for a death penalty	Metonymy	The Hebrew word used, Mem-Cheth-Tauv-Resh-Tauv is a noun coming from the root Cheth-Tauv-Resh which means to dig. Rashid explains that the noun refers to a tunnel since one result or consequence associated with [metonymy] digging is tunnels
Ex22-02a	However, if it is clear [lit. the sun rises on him] the house owner is liable for a death penalty	Idiom Synecdoche	The verse uses the phrase if the sun rises on him [talking about a thief found in a tunnel under a house leading to the owner killing the thief]. Rashid explains that the sun rises on him is an idiom meaning clear that is it is clear that the thief would not harm the house owner (for example, if a son caught a father in a tunnel trying to steal from a son--in such a case - a son finds a father digging a tunnel into his house to steal from him, it is clear [that the father would not kill his son] and the son is liable if he kills his father). Here the rising sun is a good example [synecdoche] of clarity.
